Extra-work Activities

In June 2004, I and some friends, with the common passion for 3D computer graphic, founded LWITA (<http://www.lwita.com>), the first LightWave Italian Community, helping new LightWave users to approach the program. Besides direct assistance provided to users as LightWave expert and forum moderator, I personally wrote some articles, reviews, benchmarks and tutorials about NewTek software.

Since its start in February 2006, I'm actively involved in the LightWave OpenBeta program as betatester.

Also, in December 2006, I joined the internal betatester group of Kray render engine.

Since season 2008/2009, I'm part of A.D.S.L. (Associazione Dilettantistica Sportiva Lonatese, Amateurish Sporting Association of Lonate Pozzolo) as website person in charge (<http://www.adslonatese.it>) and volley player.
